

Pennsylvania Southeastern Region

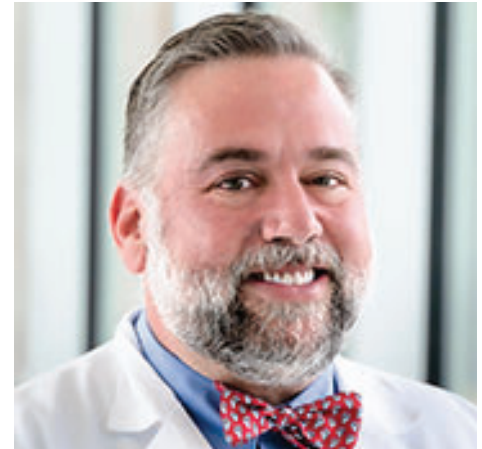

William D. Surkis, MD, FACP

Medical School Education: MCP, Hahnemann School of Medicine

Post-Doctoral Training: The Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania

Board Certifications: ABIM

Present Employment Position: Vice-President, Medical Education and DIO, Main Line Health System; Vice-President, Medical Affairs, Lankenau Medical Center

ACP Chapter and Leadership Activities: PAS Representative, Council 2016-2022; Laureate Award 2021; Guest Council Member & Participant, PA-ACP since 2022; Planning Contributor, Annual Scientific Meeting, PA-ACP since 2022

ACP National Activities: Fellowship 2009; 2021 Scientific Program Committee, Internal Medicine Meeting 2019-2020; 2019 Scientific Program Committee, Internal Medicine Meeting 2017-2019; Peer Reviewer, Hospital Medicine Content, MKSAP 2016-2018; Abstract Reviewer and Poster Judge, Internal Medicine Meeting 2012-2022; Editorial Board Member, ACP Hospitalist since 2012

Other Appointments/Activities: Member, AAIM (Alliance for Academic Internal Medicine) FY2021-22; UME-GME Transition Taskforce 2021-2023; Chair, CME and Education Committee, Main Line Health System; Co-Chair, Clinical Operations Committee, Lankenau Medical Center; Member, Credentialing Committee, Lankenau Medical Center; Non-voting member, Peer Review Committee, Lankenau Medical Center; Chair, Graduate Medical Education Committee, Main Line Health; Non-voting member, Medical Executive Committee, Main Line Health

Areas of Professional Interest and Expertise: Medical Education; Patient Safety; Care of the Complex Inpatient